Warm weather activities are on the way

I hope everyone enjoyed a Happy Easter with family and friends.

It will be late April when you read this and plans for warm weather activities such as tennis, golf, gardening and barbeque season should be well underway.

Upcoming activities here at our Escarpment Probus Club include golf, starting in May, the Car Rally/Mystery Tour, Friday, June 6th, and our first picnic on June 18th, following our meeting.

Be sure you check the Calendar of Events on the last page of your Forum every month so that you don't miss anything.

Don't forget the change of date for our July meeting to July 9th - the second Wednesday of the month for this month only.

New Probians join the Escarpment PROBUS Club

Nine new members were welcomed to the Escarpment PROBUS Club at our April meeting. Above are some of our new friends being presented with their PROBUS Lapel Pin and Name Badge. They are: Wayne Beauchamp (not in picture), Ann and Don Corker, Diane Dickie, Diane Dineen, John and Julie Flynn, Mogens Jensen and Ann Sault. Welcome to one and all.

Taking a bite out of crime

Dr. Frank Stechey - Forensic Dentist

Following the September 11th World Trade Center disaster, 256 forensic dentists worked for months to identify some of the victims. Dr. Stechey was the first of only ten foreign dentists, and the only Canadian, asked to join New York City's dental identification team.

He has received training and invitations from: the FBI Academy; the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology; the Federal Emergency Management Agency; plus many colleges and universities throughout North America.

He has been a forensic dental consultant for McMaster University's Children's Hospital plus several municipal, provincial and national police services and Children's Aid Societies throughout North America.

For over 30 years he has covered both civil and criminal cases including: product liability, homicides, mass disaster response and training, but especially, partner, spousal, senior and child abuse.

A 1971 Toronto graduate, he "retired" from general practice shortly after 9/11 in 2001 and did locum work for dentists in need until last year. He now enjoys being a treatment coordinator and instructor at the Faculty of Dentistry in Toronto.

Renowned Canadian and national radio broadcaster Roy Green has said:

"There are members of our community who improve our lives; the image of our city; and the respect for Canada. Dr. Frank Stechey is one of these Hamiltonians".

Married to Mary for 46 years, they have three grown children, and four, (so far) grandchildren. 🇺🇸

History boring . . . NOT!

Ken Weber - Writer, Lecturer

Ken Weber retired from the University of Toronto in 1996 to continue his developing career as a writer. His fiction series, Five Minute Mysteries, became a bestseller in Canada, the U.S. and Japan and is now published in twenty-two different languages, having sold copies in the millions.

A passion for history has taken Ken into a most enjoyable third career: convincing Canadians through lectures that their history is fascinating.

At retirement, U of T honoured Ken by naming him 'Emeritus', and the students at his faculty elected him Teacher of the Year. His love of teaching shows up again in these history presentations.

Ken and his wife Cecile live in Caledon and are trustees of the Bruce Trail. His speaking fees are donated to the Bruce Trail for preservation of the Niagara Escarpment. 🇺🇸

Come ride the Probus Cambridge to Paris (Ontario) Bike Tour!

By John Flynn - Bike Tour Convenor

We will ride the Trail along the Grand River from Cambridge to Paris. It is 18km of good trail one way. It is basically level; after all, it follows the river.

In Paris, I am going to reserve tables for lunch at one of the cafés overlooking the Grand river and then ride back.

This will be a leisurely ride. We will meet in Cambridge at 9:30am and plan to lunch in Paris at noon. After lunch we will return and try to be back in Cambridge by 4:00pm. That is 9kph average with no hills.

The pace will be set by our slowest rider.

How to get ready: ride your bike, it's bum time you will need. Make sure your bike is mechanically ready.

When: Wednesday 28 May 28 (Rain day: Wednesday June 4).

If you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact me at: 416-819-8518 or email jflynnf569@rogers.com

Remember darlings, "We will always have Paris"! 🇫🇷

Please return . . .

. . . your name tags to the Membership table at the conclusion of each Probus meeting.

Thank you

By Gloria Pennycook - Convenor

Firstly, many thanks to Jeanne Reid for getting the Gardening Club up and running. I will now be assuming the role of convenor and look forward to meeting everyone and getting my hands dirty (with garden soil that is!).

A few members of the club went to Canada Blooms and really enjoyed the show.

Our next meeting is on May 14 at 1:00pm and we will be putting the schedule of activities for the year together. Also, we will be talking about spring activities in the garden, upcoming events from the Milton Horticulture Society and RBG.

This is a very busy time of the year for every gardener as we get our gardens ready, split plants, plant plants, prepare soil, etc. I hope that you enjoy it as much as I do. 🇫🇷

Nineteen Probians enjoy a delightful Nosh at Night

By Ellen and Paul Crawford - Convenors

In March we had another excellent time hosted by Josie and Peter in Brampton. Conversations covered many topics of mutual interest, good food to taste and our first fire in the kitchen deftly handled by Anna with the fire proof hands.

Looking forward to future Nosh's without a home fire. 🇺🇸

Discussions surrounded relationships

By Paul Crawford - Convenor

In beautiful Kilbride we discussed The Postmistress hosted by Patricia.

There were various opinions, ranging from didn't finish the book due to lack of interest up to enjoying the book. Discussion surrounded themes of relationships, withholding information, people with official duties and war time themes.

Our next meeting will be held in May at Lorrette's when we will discuss Water for Elephants. 📖

The Escarpment Probus 50/50 Draw

takes place at every meeting. Be sure to buy your tickets before the end of the break. The draw will be made before the speaker. The amount won and the name of the winner will be announced at the meeting and in the following month's edition of the Forum.

And the winner is!

Barbara Finnie didn't know that her lucky number was 734559 when she won the April Escarpment Probus 50/50 Draw.

Barb took home $117.50 for a $5 investment. Many thanks to all those of you who played. 📖

Bob Milne's Ragtime Tea

Join us as we enjoy one of the world's greatest performers of the Rag Time and Boogie-Woogie piano styles. You will NOT be disappointed!

Bob Milne's natural ability to hear and play music goes back to his early childhood. He makes the statement, "I knew how to play a piano long before I ever started. Just push down the notes you hear and the instrument will play itself. Can't everyone do this?" He considers either looking at music or practicing to be "cheating."

Playing in concert halls since 1991, Mr. Milne plays worldwide every year. A comment often heard following one of his performances is, "unbelievable"!

THE SOCIAL SCENE

By Jeanne Reid - Social Chair

Our 13 social groups are playing, eating and just enjoying each other's company. Thank you all convenors!

There are 3 more groups starting in May – Wine Tasting Group, Golf Group and Ladies Golf. Many thanks to Michael Hooker (Wine Tasting), Ron Millichamp (Golf) and Megs Shellard (Ladies Golf) for organizing these groups.

I will be contacting people who signed up for Canasta to see if we can begin playing soon.

At this time, there is no Convenor for the Movie Groups so they are cancelled this month. Hopefully, this is temporary.

Come out and enjoy our Annual Summer Picnic after our June Probus meeting - see details below. Food will be catered with everything provided. If you can, bring a chair for comfortable seating. Shade and 2 tents will be available. Games, prizes and more. Money will be collected at the May meeting – cash or cheque accepted. 🇺🇸

Ladies Golf Anyone?

By Megs Shellard - Convenor

If you are interested in joining a group of ladies who just want to go out on the golf course and have some FUN and not worry about how many times you hit the ball, how about adding your name to the Ladies Golf list?

Currently, there are 12 ladies ready to play golf and if you would like to add yours, please contact me at mshellard37@gmail.com.

Once I have a few more names, I will call a meeting and we can decide who wants to play when and where.

activities

Something for everyone

By Liz Read - Activities Chair

There are many exciting events to look forward to as our activities planning committee expands.

Barbara Alderson is our inside connection at the Milton Centre for the Arts. She arranged for tickets to Anything Goes on April 25th and for Bedtime Stories on May 9th. The group going to Bedtime Stories will be meeting for dinner before the play at 6:00 pm at East Side Mario's (across the street from the theatre).

Barbara has announced that Colm Wilkinson will be performing in concert at the Centre on December 5th. It's too early to order tickets yet, but you will want to have your cheques ready for when they become available. Contact her if you have any questions about events at the venue at frazzled@xplornet.com.

At our April meeting, Barbara also took orders for the Ragtime Tea on October 18 in Hillsburgh. We had to book early for this show as it sells out quickly. Bob Milne will perform and there is a tea included at a cost of $29.

Brenda Hicks is arranging a theatre excursion to see the musical, Footloose, at the Drayton Theatre in St. Jacobs in the fall. Keep an eye out for information on that event at our next meeting.

Brenda been able to book Rock Chapel Golf Club on September 10th. We'll start the mini putt at 10:00am and golf until lunch at noon. The excursion cost of $28 includes golf, lunch, dessert, coffee, tax and tip. Contact Brenda at bphicks@sympatico.ca for further details.

John Flynn announced a special cycling event at our meeting. He's arranging a bike tour in Cambridge along the Grand River in early June.

John will be in touch with the dozen people who signed up and will set up the trip date with them. He is experienced on maintaining bikes and, if you have any interest in cycling or want advice, contact him at jflynn@rogers.com.

Ron Millichamp has been planning the car rally to be held on June 6th. He already has a large complement of drivers and navigators signed up. A nominal fee for joining will be collected at a later time. Participants will buy their own lunch.

Ron's email is: ronmillichamp@hotmail.com

As for events to look forward to, we are planning to attend the dinner and Swing Out to Victory Dance at the Hamilton Airplane Museum on Nov. 8. 📅

By Michael Hooker - Convenor

The Escarpment Probus Wine Group doesn't yet have an "official" name. Despite that lack, we will have our first get-together on 1st May, at Michael Hooker's house – where we will drink some wine and discuss how we want to shape our future.

We currently have twelve people signed up for the 1st, which is a good number to start. Expect to hear more in future. 📅

Please return . . .

Thank you

Chilly but fun day at the wineries

By Liz Read - Activities Chair

Thank you Patricia Kotack, for making the contacts to ensure that the 33 people on the Niagara-on-the-Lake Wine Tour on April 23 knew where and when to meet. The weather was invigorating, but not cold enough to make ice wine. Our group visited the Rief and Coyote's Run Wineries as well as the Niagara College Campus where winemaking skills are taught. We all know now to swirl the wine glass to release the aroma and flavours.

Lunch at the College's Benchmark Restaurant was absolutely delicious. For those people who were unable to attend, we brought home maps of the Niagara wineries' locations to share at our next Probus meeting. F

Come out and enjoy lunch with your new friends

By Catherine Parr - Convenor

Following our PROBUS meeting on Wednesday, April 16th, twenty-six of us met up at Kelsey's for lunch. It was a fun opportunity to get together and get to know each other while checking out the different dishes coming to the table. I really wanted what the person beside me had ordered!

It was a good choice of restaurant with a reasonably quiet setting although not wheelchair accessible. Unfortunately, the food came out at different times with some people having finished their meal before others got their orders. This was a bit of a snag to consider if we choose to return.

Please join your fellow Probians for a bite and a chat after our May 21st meeting at our next restaurant, Allison's...at the Best. You may have dined here before or ordered from Allison's Catering in the past or taken home one of their famous "Pot Pies" sold at the Milton Farmers' market. The owner, Barb, has recommended that we have a "Pot Pie Luncheon" in order to serve our group in a timely fashion.

Lunch Bunch Banter

Allison's...at the Best

Located at 161 Chisholm Drive, in Milton in the Best Western Hotel

Allison's Famous Signature Pot Pies
Slow cooked Chicken, Beef, Curried Chicken or Vegetable Pot Pie.

Served with a side of Fries or House Salad
$10.00

It is noted that some members may prefer a lighter meal of soup or salad. Certainly all menu items will be available but may take extra time to get to the table. I will bring a copy of the full menu to our meeting and if you would like, I will call in your order ahead of time. Please let me know at cparr3@cogeco.ca if this arrangement is acceptable to you or not. F

Cheque us out!

Please remember to bring your cheque book to all the Probus meetings if you would like to sign-up for any of the activities.

Thank you.

Nosh+Natter a monthly affair

By Gillian Reynolds - Nosh+Natter Convenor

A conflicting event and travel plans of several members made for a smaller than usual gathering of the Nosh 'n Natter group held at the home of Anne Marie Stockley recently.

Co-hosted by Megs Shellard, there was an abundance of tasty hors d'oeuvres to "nosh" as well as some delightful desserts.

As is usual the "Natter" was lively and varied. It's amazing just how different and interesting conversations can be during the evening.

Luckily, the anticipated rain did not materialize so the walk to Anne Marie's house, which is across the road from the New Life Church where we had to park, did not entail getting wet. 🇺🇸

Planning now for October At the St. Jacobs Country Playhouse

One of the most explosive movie musicals in recent memory bursts onto the St. Jacobs stage with exhilarating results.

A young rebel moves to a small middle-American town where dance is forbidden and encourages all young people to defy the strict edict of local pastor and call for a rock 'n roll party.

The St. Jacobs Country Playhouse is conveniently located in the heart of St. Jacobs Country. A converted Cidery and Winery, this 400-seat theatre retains the turn-of-the-century masonry and heavy timber character associated with the traditional Mennonite lifestyle.

BOOK CLUB

A tough one to read but recommended

By Fay MacDonald - Convenor

I would like to start by saying thank you to Joanne Millichamp for hosting April's book club. The book we reviewed was Canadian author Will Ferguson's 419. Joanne started off the review, however, it didn't take long for the rest of us to join in. 419 is based on the penal code in Nigeria. Crimes can range from petty theft to multi-million dollar scams and anything in between.

The story begins in Canada with a car accident and the family left behind and what they found out about their father and the events leading up to his death and how vulnerable people are and how predatory internet scams can be.

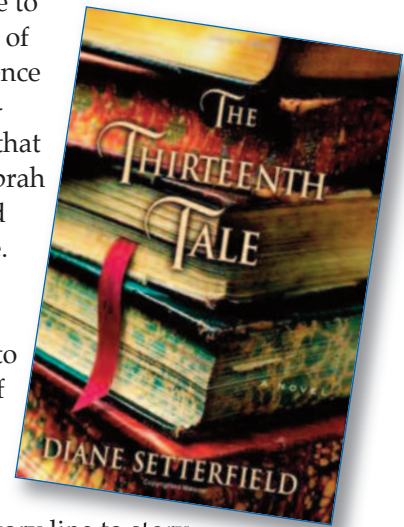

The author then takes a turn and adds two more story lines. The first based on the oil conglomerates and how this impacted the country and its people. The second about a single pregnant women. We discovered that this character was based loosely on the true story of a young single women who was sentenced to be stoned to death due to being pregnant out of wedlock. Her sentence was overturned because of a petition that was initiated by Oprah Winfrey and signed by 2 million people.

With all those story lines in one book, be prepared to gather quite a bit of information and possibly being a little confused. The book jumps from story line to story line between Canada, Nigeria, the pregnant women and the oil conglomerate. Not necessarily in that order.

The majority opinion was that this book was not necessarily one that they would have personally read. However, all agreed that this is the best part of part of a book club; you get to read books which maybe out of your comfort zone. The majority agreed the book was very informative and would recommend it.

Our next meeting is 10:00am, Wednesday May 14th at Gretchen Greene O'Brien's home. The book being reviewed is The Thirteenth Tale by Dianne Setterfield.

Stuff you didn't know you didn't know!

- Coca-Cola was originally green
- It is impossible to lick your elbow
- The state with the highest percentage of people who walk to work: Alaska
- The percentage of Africa that is wilderness: 28%. The percentage of North America that is wilderness: 38%
- The cost of raising a medium-size dog to the age of eleven: $16,400
- The average number of people airborne over the U.S. in any given hour: 61,000
- The first novel ever written on a typewriter, Tom Sawyer.
- Q. If you were to spell out numbers, how far would you have to go until you would find the letter 'A'?
A. One thousand.

- Q. What do bulletproof vests, fire escapes, windshield wipers and laser printers have in common?
A. All were invented by women.
- Q. What is the only food that doesn't spoil?
A. Honey
- Which day of the year, are more collect calls made than any other day of the year?
A. Father's Day
- Many years ago in England, pub frequenters had a whistle baked into the rim, or handle, of their ceramic cups. When they needed a refill, they used the whistle to get some service. "Wet your whistle" is the phrase inspired by this practice.
- At least 75% of people who read this will try to lick their elbow!
