HAY BALES AWAIT A DRY BARN AT THE END OF OUR SUMMER

Special events and Club activities not slowing

We are starting to see the first signs of autumn but this does not appear to be slowing down either our Club activities or special events.

The Walking Clubs have been active with many members enjoying the fresh fall weather and the special lunchtime campfire at Hilton Falls.

Several First Edition Clubbers enjoyed an interesting literary pub club sponsored by Milton's Public Library focusing on one of their future selections "Mount Pleasant".

The Escarpment Grapenuts have also been keeping active and this popular Club is going very strong.

Many of our members are taking advantage of the variety of opportunities for playing cards - choosing either Bridge, Euchre or Cribbage.

All the planning is completed for the Guess Who's Coming to Dinner? initiative and there has been a very good response for the Swing Out to Victory Dance in November. In all, things have been quite busy.

By now, everyone should have provided Jim Tschirhart, our Membership Chair, with a cheque to renew his or her membership for 2014/2015.

As mentioned at our last meeting, the City of Milton generously provided us with a grant in order to purchase a new projector for our meetings. This grant came about from money given to the city from OLG revenues. Look for us to be using it at the November meeting.

I also want to encourage as many people as possible to register for our Christmas luncheon at the Crosswinds Golf Club. Last year's event was a tremendous success and we are expecting the same again. In order to encourage maximum participation, the cost has been capped at $35 and such expenses as entertainment and prizes will be subsidized.

Read your Forum carefully so that you are "in the know" about all our Club activities.

Start those pictures and stories coming!

I would like to encourage you, our Escarpment Probus Club members, to submit photographs and stories of your travels in special places such as China, South Africa, Europe and Goose Bay.

Send any of your pictures and a short story of where you are and what you are doing to the Editor at: alan@jordanar.com

Research survey request received

The Escarpment Probus Club has been approached by Doctoral Candidate, Suzanne Bell, from the University of Ottawa for assistance.

She is completing her PhD in Clinical Psychology and is looking for volunteers (women over the age of 50) to complete a research survey in a study of older adult women's experiences in intimate relationships.

Suzanne has contacted several Probus groups hoping that individuals who are interested might complete her research survey.

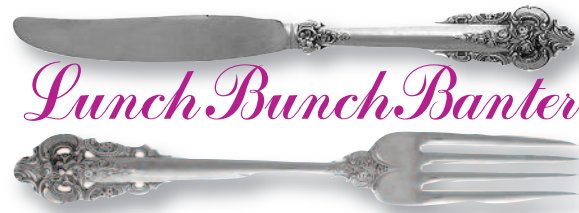

We have looked into this request and feel it is legitimate. It has been given approval from the University of Ottawa's Research Ethics Board.

In fact, several other Probus Clubs have already invited interested members to participate in this survey. Further information can be found at: www.surveymonkey.com/s/IntimateWomen 🇺🇸

Lunch Bunch Banter

By Catherine Parr - Convenor

Our lunch reservations following the November 19th meeting have been made at Casa Americo. An Italian Bistro and Restaurant, Casa Americo is at 144 Main Street, downtown Milton.

I had not considered this upscale restaurant for our crowd because I assumed it was too pricey and likely too small to accommodate our usual twenty to twenty-five diners. I was happily wrong on both counts, the owner is quite willing to fit us all in.

The daily luncheon special for example, soup or salad and pasta for $12 will be announced by our server.

Our true seafoodies might consider antipasto choices of calamari with olives, onion, sun dried tomatoes and feta cheese in house dressing at $9.88 or Escargot Al Funghi with mushrooms, garlic butter and parmigiano reggiano at $8.88.

I am curious to find out what a "frizzled" leek might be which is the garnish on their specialty, Cream of Butternut Squash Soup at $5.

The Panini and Sandwich selections, all with french fries or salad, have a Vegetarian choice with grilled seasonal vegetables and mozzarella and pesto spread at $9.88.

The Reuben comes in at $10, Veal Scallopini or Chicken Parmigiano at $12.88, just to mention a few from this category.

The menu continues with many delightful Pasta and Risotto dishes and main course plates to tempt every appetite and budget. See you on the 19th!

Wine tasting “need to know” information

By Michael Hooker - Convenor

Thursday 4th September – Host: Patricia and Ron Flannagan

Theme: Wines of Burgundy

Winners:

A tie for first:

Domaine des Malandes Chablis 2012 (Chardonnay)

Maison Louis Latour Burgundy (Pinot Noir)

Monday 8th September – Joanne and Ron Millichamp

Theme: Grapes of Italy

Winner:

Batasiolo Bosc Dia Rei Moscato D’asti (a sweet white Moscato grape highly recommended by the Milton LCBO Store manager – they have trouble keeping it in stock).

Thursday 2nd October – Ann and Ron DuPont

Theme: Specific grapes: Sauvignon Blanc (Whites) and Pinot Noir (Reds)

Winners:

Whites: Francois Lurton Sauvignon Blanc - Bordeaux, France

Reds: Mirassou Reserve Pinot Noir – Modesto, California

Monday 6th October – Gillian and Bryan Reynolds

Theme: Alphabetical Wines from Australia, British Columbia, Chile, Deutschland, Espagne, France

Winners:

Whites: Schmitt Sohne Mosel Riesling

Reds: Chilean Malbec – made at Carafe Wines in Milton!

From the tasting reports from our hosts, it sounds as if I missed some very enjoyable evenings while I was away. I didn’t drink much wine while I was in Turkey, but some of the tour group had a glass with most dinners. Consensus seemed to be that Turkish wines varied widely, from pretty rough to very pleasant.

Our November hosts are:

Monday 3rd November (7:00 pm) - Lorrette and Peter Shermat

611 Foster Court, Milton - Phone: 905 878 1293 - Email: lorrette@sympatico.ca

Lorrette and Peter are willing to host 10 Grapenutters, plus the two of them

Thursday 6th November (7:00 pm) - Anna and Chris Strachan

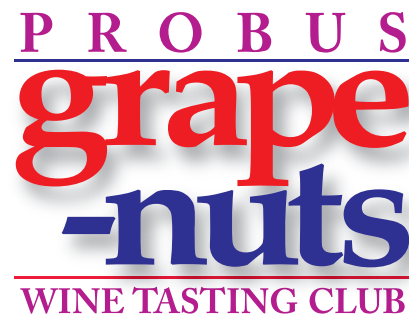

500 Marcellus Avenue, Milton - Phone: 905 878 0812 - Email: anstrac1945@yahoo.ca

Anna and Chris will also take in 10 thirsty souls.

If you plan on attending, please advise your chosen host at least 1 week before, to allow time for the host to advise you of the individual cost. If you have to cancel, please advise the host asap, and also settle up with the host if you cancel after you have been advised of the cost.

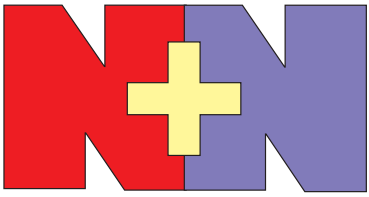

I’m looking for a host for Monday 1st December – if you would like to volunteer, please let me know. Hosting can be fun, and you decide how many people you can comfortably take in.

Re my survey about continuing over the winter – results were decisive. For continuing: 100% - for taking a GrapeNuts holiday: 0%. The Ayes have it! 🇺🇸

Two new couples join Natterers

By Anne Marie Stockley and Gillian Reynolds

It was a dark and stormy night . . . but it didn't dampen our enthusiasm. After the summer hiatus, the intrepid Nosh 'n' Natter group got together on October 3rd for a wonderful evening of terrific conversation, great noshing and libations.

Originally planned to be held at the home of Sigrid Byrne's, last minute reno conflicts caused a shift to Sheila Webster's home. They were excellent hostesses.

Thank you so much.

Our next Nosh 'n' Natter will be hosted by Barb Crowe and John Yardley on November 7th. See you there. 🇺🇸

If his nob or his nibs means anything to you . . .

By Martin Capper - Treasurer

Nine members of the Card Sharp Cribbage Group gathered on Wednesday October 20 for an evening of company, companionship and cribbage. We played in 3 groups, a twosome, a threesome and with partners in a foursome.

Bragging rights went to Joanne Millichamp who achieved the single hand highest score of 24 early in the night and to Ellen Crawford who took Ron Millichamp to the wood shed with 12 in her hand and 14 in her crib!

So, if 15 for 2, or his nob, his nibs and one for the go mean anything to you, consider joining us for our next night of fun on November 10 at 82 Miles Street. All levels of players including beginners will find themselves welcome! 🇺🇸

Keep fit with Pole Walking

By Liz Read - Activities Chair

Our newest Probus activity is Pole Walking. We will meet Mondays and Fridays at 10:30am and Wednesdays at 9:30am. Park at the Rotary Park lot walkway leading to the Mill Pond.

If weather is inclement, we'll walk indoors at the Milton Sports Centre. Rubber tips for your poles are mandatory. 🇺🇸

Cheque us out!

Please remember to bring your cheque book to all the Probus meetings if you would like to sign-up for any of the activities.

Thank you.

Skills, winemakers compared

By Michael Hooker - Convener

Eleven of the Escarpment Grapenuts gathered on Thursday October 2 at the home of Ann and Ron Du Pont for the next round of wine comparisons.

The category was to highlight a specific grape. The three whites were Sauvignon Blanc and the three reds were Pinot Noir, but they were from vastly different regions. This is to emphasize the difference that the local growing conditions create, as well as the differences between winemakers' skills.

After the first evaluation, we had a sample of cheese and then sampled again. All enjoyed the changed format and found that a cheese pairing significantly changed the rating of some of the wines. 🇺🇸

“The time has come,” the Walrus said, “To write of many things”

By Gillian Reynolds - Convenor

Eight of our ten talented members gathered in the plushly appointed upstairs of Grace Anglican Church on Thursday, October 23rd at 1:00 pm. It was interesting getting acquainted and hearing everyone’s stories or poems.

There were a variety of topics read, ranging from public bathrooms to dog sledding and Guy Fawkes Night to Christmas. After each reading, we showed our appreciation and then followed a discussion leading to personal memoirs and experiences. In fact, we became so carried away that we didn’t have time for a break.

We meet on the 4th Thursday each month from 1pm until 3pm. The next being on November 27th. 📅

*“The time has come,” the Walrus said,
“To talk of many things:
Of shoes - and ships - and sealing-wax -
Of cabbages - and kings -
And why the sea is boiling hot -
And whether pigs have wings.”*

By Lewis Carroll

And the winner is!

Ron Millichamp was the lucky winner of the October Escarpment Probus 50/50 Draw.

Ron took home a record $128.75 for a $5 investment. Many thanks to all those of you who played. 📅

Too much good food, not!

By Paul Crawford - Program Chair

The September Nosh was hosted by the Millichamps. There were over 20 in attendance that evening. Guests have continued to come up with different and tasty hors' d'oeuvres and this night was no exception. The family dog welcomed us all and we had another in a series of enjoyable evenings. 🇺🇸

So much fun, so little time!

By Liz Read - Activities Chair

The Swing Out to Victory Dance is being held on Saturday, November 8, at the Canadian Warplane Heritage Museum, 9280 Airport Road, Mount Hope. For those who joined up, remember that the doors open at 5:30 with dinner at 6:30 and music/dancing at 9:00 pm. Our group will have reserved seating and one of our committee members will meet you at the door with your tickets. If you have any clothing and accessories from the 1940s, this is your opportunity to dress in style.

The Colm Wilkinson concert on December 5th promises to be a real treat.

Those attending can take the opportunity to have dinner at 5:30 pm at East Side Mario's before the show. Let Barbara Alderson (frazzled@xplornet.com) know if you are interested in joining the diners.

And for those members who signed up for the cheese pairings, we'll meet in the Loft of the Longo's at 1079 Maple Avenue (near Home Depot at Thompson Rd. and Maple). We'll see you on December 15 at 11:00 am. Ginny, the Longo's representative, promises tastings of delicious cheeses accompanied by deli meats, fruits, nuts and breads that will get us ready for planning our Christmas entertaining.

We are now booking for the Kerry Stratton concert, Tchaikovsky's Passion, at the Milton Centre for the Arts on February 20. Tickets are $36 a person.

At our last Probus meeting, members indicated that they have energy to spare and are willing to strike out for bowling at Champs Family Entertainment Centre on Bronte Street. This is a deal at only $22 a person including bowling, shoe rental, and a bowling alley menu lunch. No previous experience is required and activities

we'll happily pull one another out of the gutter if that's where our bowling skills take us. This will take place on Thursday, January 15 at 10:30am and you can sign up at our next meeting. Don't miss it! 🇺🇸

A 12 day / 11 night tour of Ireland has been specially designed for our Probus Club by a tour wholesale company. The trip will take place in 2015 from September 22nd to October 3rd. The cost is $3,059 per person with a single supplement of $500. Not included are airport departure taxes of approximately $630pp.

The trip includes visits to the cities of Belfast, Dublin, Derry, Galway and Cork. Scenic tours of the Ring of Kerry, Killarney lakes, the Burren region, Connemara and the Giant's Causeway are also included. We will visit castles, abbeys, beautiful gardens, and yes, a few pub evenings as well.

If you think you may be interested, please add your name to the sign up sheet available at the next meeting, and we will provide you with a detailed brochure.

This book chronicles our history

By Paul Crawford - Program Chair

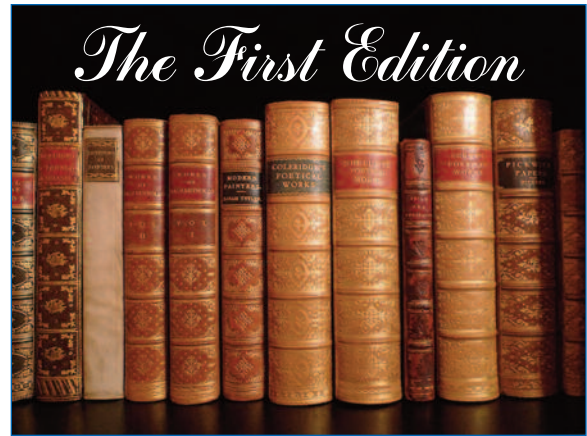

Penny hosted our latest discussion on a nonfiction book about the life of Henrietta Lacks, a poor black woman who lived in the Baltimore area in the early 1950s and who died a horrible death from cervical cancer complicated by syphilis and HPV virus infections.

Cells from her cancer were taken and cultured by a doctor at Johns Hopkins hospital.

The book chronicles how those cells became the building block for scientific research from the 1950s up to the present. The sale of those cells by drug companies has earned millions and been instrumental in finding the cure for polio and many different forms of cancer.

Henrietta's family, however, did not benefit from this and lived a life of poverty and great hardship.

The group had a wide-ranging reaction to the book with ratings from 4 to 8 out of 10 with 10 being an excellent engaging read. All found the story behind the book compelling but there is a heavy dose of biology in the book due to the need to explain how her cells keep living to this day in cultures throughout the world. 📖

First Club President receives Lifetime Membership

By Joanne Millichamp - Past-President

Thank you all for the Lifetime Membership given to me by all of you at our last meeting. This was totally unexpected and very much appreciated. Thank you all very much.

Needless to say, I didn't create this new, vibrant Escarpment Probus Club all by myself! Thanks again to each and every one of you for the part you have each played individually in making this Club such a success.

We were lucky to have such a dedicated management team for our first year, and we've had some fun-times getting things organized. Many thanks again. 🇺🇸

Time for our gardens to sleep

By Gloria Pennycook - Vice-President

In October the Zoomer Bloomers met in downtown Milton led by Jim McConvey to walk around the old part of town.

We enjoyed fall colours and gardens, as well as the interesting architecture of the old houses.

Jim hosted the group back at his house where we planned for future events.

We hope to go to Crawfords Garden Center in November to make a seasonal arrangement. Then we will rest for the winter, just like our garden, and start up again in the spring.

We have had a fun season of events. Thanks to everyone. 🇺🇸
